

OSRT Offers Military Discount for Events

The OSRT offers a 20% discount on OSRT event registration fees to active and honorably discharged military members and active duty spouses. This discount applies to both technologists and students who are members of the OSRT. The following is required to qualify for the discount:

Step 1: At the time of event registration documentation may be faxed or emailed to the Executive Secretary:

- a. Military member must submit a copy of their active military ID card.
- b. Honorably discharged members must submit a copy of their DD214.
- c. Military spouses must submit a copy of their current military dependent ID card.

Step 2: The Executive Secretary will verify the OSRT member qualifies for the military discount and will issue a price offset in the amount of 20% off the event registration fee. Event registration fees are the only fees eligible for the discount. A confirmation copy of the meeting registration will be sent to the military member for prompt payment.
